

OPPORTUNITIES TO GET INVOLVED WITH CENTRAL TEXAS NONPROFITS

- United Way for Greater Austin's Searchable Volunteer Opportunity Directory
- The Austin Community Foundation and the United Way of Greater Austin's All Together ATX Fund to provide flexible resources to local nonprofits.
- The Austin Chamber of Commerce's Austin Gives is a listing of specific needs from nonprofits for volunteers that are related to COVID-19.
- Lend a Hand ATX was created by Austin Tech Alliance as a platform to help skilled tech volunteers and those in need make critical community connections during the COVID-19 crisis.
- Generation SERVE specializes in volunteer opportunities for children, teens and families.
- Visit The New Philanthropists to participate in their Equity Chair Workshops and to learn more about their Board Mentors of Color Program.
- Check out Mission Capital's Social Venture Partners Program.
- Visit I Live Here I Give Here's Amplify Austin site to find a cause that's important to you, make a gift and explore engagement opportunities.
- Learn more about membership in Impact Austin, a women's giving collective funding Central Texas nonprofits.
- Leadership Austin's amazing programs help you hone your leadership, know your community better and connect with other people who are passionate about leadership.
- Family Independence Initiative has established the Give Together Now fund to help families across America facing financial hardship through partnering with local nonprofits.
- The Austin Community Foundation and the Entrepreneurs Foundation created the Stand with Austin Fund to support individuals and small businesses impacted by the cancellation of SXSW.
- The City of Austin has a new platform called Give Pulse to support our community's COVID-19 response.

