

Mission Capital Lunch and Grow

Capital Metro's Jo Anne Ortiz

Community Engagement Coordinator

Metro Cares

Participation in the program is provided to at no charge to the partner. In order to be eligible, organizations must submit in writing a completed application, which will be measured using the following criteria:

- Organization's primary mailing address lies within the CapMetro's service area.
- Alignment with CapMetro's mission, guiding principles and strategic operating plan.
- Organization must demonstrate significant service and impact to the residents of Central Texas.

Central Texas Food Bank – MetroCares Photo

Community Partnership Program

In order to foster good will to the Authority in the community Capital Metro has developed a limited opportunity for qualifying non-profit organizations to utilize available space on Capital Metro vehicles without the usual space rental fee for public service announcements.

- The non-profit organization placing these PSAs must produce the ads at its own expense.
- The organization must pay for the installation and removal of all advertisements at current rates.
- Capital Metro will arrange for the installation and removal.

Decommissioned Buses

- As Capital Metro transitions to electric buses, more buses will become available.
- Monitor the surplus online at CapMetro.org/surplus
- Or submit questions to: customerservice@govdeals.com
- You may also contact feedback@capmetro.org for Community Engagement.

COVID Pivot

Food Delivery

- Central Texas Food Bank
- Good Apple
- Farmshare
- Delivered +600,000 meals

Mobile WiFi

- AISD
- 9 locations around Austin and Del Valle

Community Involvement

- City of Austin Equity Office
- Community Resilience Trust
- Neighborhood Associations

For more information:

JoAnne.Ortiz@capmetro.org

Or visit:

<https://capmetro.org/advertise/#!>

METRO

THANK YOU!